Lindsay Hassall

Lindsay is currently chair of the ICCC in the UK. He also chairs a group of companies that include accountancy & tax advice, and a payroll bureaux. His passion is manifesting the Kingdom of God wisdom and culture in the marketplace.

Stephen Gunning

Stephen is passionate about walking by faith in business and life, and has many scary yet exciting stories to tell. He has started and grown two software businesses, both with international customers, and has sold one of them to a global player. He's served at different times on both the national and international Boards of ICCC over many years.

Karen Kircher

With a mission to 'change the face of leadership to one that reflects the leadership of Jesus', Karen has over 40 years' experience as a leadership, team, and organizational development coach. Her book and group training series, both titled, 'Called To Influence' equip Christians to walk their faith daily wherever God has positioned them. Her latest book on Emotional Intelligence helps the reader to understand and manage their EQ, enabling them to build stronger relationships and effectively communicate, influence and lead.

Bill Peters

Bill and his wife Carla ran a Property Management Agency for 28 years until selling it in 2018. He has been a member of ICCC since 1993, served on both UK and international Boards, and currently co-leads its teaching domain. For over 25 years, he has delivered ICCC's foundation teaching programme, Transformed Working Life, globally.

Tim Coleman

As a Certified Business Growth Specialist with ActionCOACH, Tim helps business owners who want to grow profits, work fewer hours and build their dream team. After a career in the BBC, he founded his own business to run an award-winning radio station. Having coached many people to success, he has learnt to first be a listener of the Holy Spirit and then a listener of human hearts. Good questions always follow.

Benedict Robbins

Benedict works as a senior geoscientist, bridging science and faith for 15+ years in renewables sector. He's worked across Fugro, ERM and bp, where he's actively supported / established workplace fellowship. He currently consults independently. A long-standing ICCC member, he's served in creative media and as a seconded trustee. He's passionate in seeing young professionals equipped and supported in the early-career faith journey.

These sessions will all be live online and include teaching, encouraging accounts of God at work, and time for discussion and reflection.
